THE SKY IS THE LIMIT

1993/94 will be the third season of the Coca-Cola Soccer League and the eighteenth year of Soccer's National Competition - by far Australia's oldest team sport national club competition.

Over the years there have been many changes, always striving to improve the competition for the benefit of loyal fans.

One of the founders of this competition, Sam Papasavas, sadly passed away before the eighteenth season commenced. Sam fought and worked extremely hard to ensure that the best national competition possible was in place and unfortunately he was not able to see what a crowing achievement this forthcoming season was going to be.

Through building on previous years, the 1993/94 Coca-Cola Soccer League is able to boast teams from as far and wide as Brisbane, Newcastle, Sydney, Wollongong, Morwell, Melbourne and Adelaide.

Many of these teams have developed clubs, grounds and facilities that would be the pride of any other sport in most countries of the world. What's more, they are not satisfied with what they have but will continue to develop for the benefit of the thousands of spectators that support them.

Unfortunately, some clubs are unable to maintain the pace that goes with being in a national competition and so the League will say goodbye to Preston for 1993/94 and welcome in their place a new club, Melbourne Brunswick United.

The previous season saw the loss of APIA Leichhardt replace by Morwell Falcons. These changes bring new spectators, administrators and ideas to the League and are a natural part of continuing to grow and move with the times. It is always sad to say goodbye to a club that is on a downward trend but at the same time it is good to be able to give another new, energetic club the opportunity to achieve in their place.

Season 1993/94 sees a number of new innovations commencing with the League Cup being played as a pre-season competition. This has been welcomed as a great improvement on the not so popular mid-season Wednesday evening matches and will, hopefully, be a hit with the fans. Season 1993/94 also sees a plethora of soccer publications with the already established monthly Soccer Australia being challenged by Soccer International, and the long running Australian and British Soccer Weekly (which is now twice weekly) being challenged by Inside Soccer and Simply Soccer. All of these concentrate on Australian Soccer and are an indication of its rapid growth.

More and more articles are also appearing in both English and non-English newspapers and magazines as a further indication of growth. Radio programmes are also reflecting this growth of interest with more broadcasts, more soccer programmes and more reporting of results.

On television, commercial networks are showing an increasing interest in their news, sports shows and general interest programmes while SBS promise the best coverage ever for the coming season.

The national teams' successes have been a major part of this growth of interest and the Coca-Cola Soccer League has been instrumental in the successes of the national teams.

In particular, Australia's hosting the World Youth Championship and the matches against Holland and Canada have all helped to bring Soccer into more Australian homes than ever before.

This will of course reach a record peak when the Coca-Cola Socceroos play Argentina and, if they qualify for the World Cup, who knows what may happen.

Soccer's strength internationally is one of its biggest assets and its being the only football code at the Olympics is part of this. Both the World Cup and the Olympics being in the USA will being this home to more people than ever before and with Australia hosting Soccer for the Year 2000 Olympics, Australian will finally come to realise the size and importance of the code and the relative insignificance, internationally, of its competitors.

The Coca-Cola Soccer League will grow enormously from this and will need to be ready to take advantage of the new found interest and growth in spectators with even better club facilities and marketing.

It is only a matter of time!

With the Olympics in 2000, Australians will finally come to realise the size and importance of soccer

• The two captains, Alex Tobin and Ian Grey, shake hands, while referee John Fraser looks on

If one had to elect a highlight reel to re-run as testimony to this team's season it would almost certainly be Marconi's opening 20 minutes of that game.
The epitomy of that spirited, unbridled aggression was Steve Corica, whose own personal finals series in his new roll at the back.
George Jolevski is deservedly looked to troubled in a line-ball grand final and, to the neutral observer, was fully deserving of the win.
Arok and his young charges had every right to savour that championship feeling.
What is most un-nerving for the rest of the league is that you get the feeling that the Arok-Marconi partnership is far from done yet.
Mark Schwarzer is now Australia's number one, a fair enough indication of his talent as it is.
Matt Bingley had a super season and a boomer finals

South Melbourne offered Corica countered, powering past and through tackles, taking on a beating men with skill and blistering pace, setting up and scoring goals.
His team mates rose to the occasion in no uncertain fashion.
Only two other teams stood close to Marconi in 1992/93, with the Fairfielders taking on and beating both when it counted in the play-offs. Souths were unluckily decimated by injury, but were nevertheless taken apart in convincing fashion.
Adelaide City plays the most splendid season, Corica is a marvel who has come of age and Glenn Johnson will probably cement his place in the season ahead.
And teenager Ufuk Talay will almost certainly become the CCSL's next superstar, for the kid is that good.
And every one of those players is under 25 years of age.
The other main players in Marconi's unforgettable rise, most of whom should saddle up for the new campaign, were Jean-Paul de Marigny, Ian Gray, Blagoja Kuleski, Ermanno Pelucchi, Andy Harper and Gary van Egmond.

MARCONI'S FINALS TRIUMPH

A new Marconi-Fairfield dynasty was born as the Coca-Cola Soccer League season thundered to a grand finish in May.
Just when the lesser lights thought it was safe to go back into the stormy waters of the finals series, Frank Arok rolled out the new model 'Green Machine'.
So just two years after the monsters of Marconi looked dead and buried, new man Arok produced a top-scoring, high-rolling mean machine which fairly powered its way to a record-equalling fourth CCSL title.
Arok's young turks helped set one of three finals goalscoring records on their way to the title when they demolished and demoralised South Melbourne 7-0 in the second leg of the Major Semi-Final. That 7-0 result - a CCSL finals record - set the Fairfielders up for a home town Grand Final in the city where they'd not lost a game all summer long. South Melbourne, the long-time league leaders, crashed when it counted most and became only the second minor premiership-winning team to bow out before the Grand Final in CCSL history. By the time Adelaide City had crawled into the big game by the hardest road possible for the second year in succession - walking over the convulsing body of South Melbourne in the process - Marconi was primed for victory.
It took some contraversial refereeing decisions to turn the Grand Final in Marconi's favour, but the Fairfield faithful rejoiced regardless as Andy Harper's 52nd minute penalty took the trophy back to Bossley Park for the first time since 1989.
Adelaide City was courageous in its defence, South Melbourne blew its chances thanks to indifferent form and injury. Wollongong City managed a play-off win but fell to the might of Adelaide City, West Adelaide almost pulled off an early shock but went out in a thrilling local derby and the Parramatta Eagles got

WELCOME BACK!

The promotion of Melbourne Brunswick United back into the elite proves that history and tradition still have place in today's Coca-Cola Soccer League.
It's a welcome return to the big time for a club which has known four decades of success.
Last time around the Melbourne B.U.S.C. were known by the club's more traditional and world-famous name, Juventus.
Whilst Juventus won't be Juve any more, the fighting B.U.S.C.enjoy a history richly woven into the tapestry of Victorian soccer.
Melbourne Brunswick United has been around for 43 years, making it one of the oldest clubs in the state.
Even giants South Melbourne are mere babes compared with Juventus, the Pandas having reeled off five Victorian titles before the Middle Park club even first saw the light of day. The club's 1985 CCSL title aside, Juve's main claim to fame is a string of five titles in succession between 1952 and 1955 and a record run of success which remains a Victorian record today.
Although the Victorian titles have numbered just three in the past 30 years of State League (now Premier League) competition, Juventus has been top five material on 18 occasions, including runner-up six times and third on another five occasions.
The mighty B.U.S.C.have never finished lower than 10th, never been relegated and, along with Sunshine George Cross, this pair remain as the only two Victorian clubs to have played top grade soccer (ie. Premier League or CCSL) continuously since federation in '58.
Melbourne Brunswick hasn't seen CCSL action for nearly five years, yet the club holds pride of place in Victorian soccer for being only one of two Melbourne clubs to win a national title.
Under coach John Margaritis, who is returning to take on the job this summer, and current Victorian Soccer Federation Chairman, Joe Caruso, Juve's bargain basement team, put together for less that $50,000, faced off against the might of all-conquering Sydney City in a duel-legged national play-off.
Melbourne Brunswick United did the impossible, winning both legs 1-0. For the 7,000 Juve fans at Olympic Park to see the second leg triumph the names of those players in club history will be etched in the memory.
The 1985 title squad was: Brian Brown (captain), Yakka Banovic, Mehmet Durakovic, John Dowie, Eddie Campbell, Fab Incantalupo, Mike Petersen, Richard Miranda, Paul Wade, Robbie Cullen, Joe Sweeney, Peter Lewis, Reno Minichiello, Andrew Zinni, Joe Palatsides, Paul Drinoczky and Sean Keogh.
Welcome back Melbourne Brunswick United.

SCORES

Pre 1984, under the old play-off systems, the highest score recorded in a final was a 6-2 win by Heidelberg against Brisbane City in a 1979 semi-final.
This remains the biggest score in post-season history.
Other pre-1984 efforts include Heidelberg 4 - South Melbourne 1 (1980), Heidelberg 4 - Sydney City 0 (1980) and Sydney City 3 - St George 0 (1982).
Since 1984 the scoring records in finals are -
ELIMINATION FINAL: Wollongong City 3 - Parramatta Eagles 0 (1992/93 1st Leg).

PRELIMINARY FINAL: Sydney Olympic 3 - Apia 0 (1984 Nth Div).
GRAND FINAL: St George 4 - Apia 0 (1987)*

ELIMINATION FINAL: 8,306 for West Adelaide v Adelaide City at Football Park (1992/93 2nd Leg)

TRIMMERS AND BLUES SCOOP AWARDS

In what was one of the most glamorous CCSL awards nights in history, they came to pay tribute to South Melbourne's little master, Paul Trimboli. 'Trimmers', often lauded by his peers as the most skilled player in domestic football, was finally given tangible proof of the respect in which he is held by on-field opponents when he took off the Warren Medal for the Player's Player of the Year.
And in what was at least some compensation for a dismal finals series, South Melbourne bagged three major awards on the night.
As well as Trimboli's award, Jim Pyrgolios took the Coach of the Year honours and Francis Awaritefe received the accolades for league top scorer.
Marconi finals hero Steve Corica joined a list of famous names - including that of Trimboli - when he was named Under 21 Player of the Year.

HEIDELBERG BREAKS DROUGHT WITH CUP WIN

A tough road to success

The League Cup has not always been a favoured competition amongst the clubs in the CCSL, with many coaches and players seeing the competition as an unwanted and unpopular distraction to the regular season.
But for fans, players and officials of Heidelberg United the 1992/93 League Cup will always be recalled in glowing terms and the exploits of the team's cup run immortalised forever at the Olympic Village.
For it was the cup which provided Heidelberg United with its very first major trophy at CCSL level.
The success came after more than a decade at the top which has provided its a fair share of heartbreak to the proud gold and blacks.
Despite Heidelberg United boasting a record which ranks sixth all-time in CCSL listings, the club had tasted only defeat in three previous cup finals, as well as some championship misses.
Although the Bergers had a first round bye in 1992/93, the road to the final wasn't at all easy.
First it was a two-legged battle against long-standing rivals South Melbourne, followed by a semi-final against reigning champions and cup holders Adelaide City.
After blasting South Melbourne in a remarkable first leg and negotiating a tough return game at Middle Park, Heidelberg then dumped Adelaide at Olympic Park for the second time in the season, having beaten Zoran Matic's team in the league at that venue back in October.
For the second time in three seasons Parramatta Eagles drew home town advantage for the final, at the same venue it had beaten Preston in the 1990/91 final.
But when Alan Scott blasted Heidelberg into an extra-ordinary early lead, the Melbourne side resolved to ensure this was the final it wasn't going to lose.
Michael Reda levelled late in the game only to see Coca-Cola Olyroo George Slifkas grab Heidelberg's never to be forgotten winner with less than five minutes left on the clock.
Although not a classic affair, the 1992/93 League Cup Final was as tough and hard-hitting as any in recent history, with Heidelberg thrilling its supporters with a long-awaited win

* Adelaide City started the wind-up towards a genuine back-to-back title bid as it reversed the result of the Elimination Final opening leg and took the tie overall on the away goals ruling.
Sharks coach Raul Blanco predicted City would get to the Grand Final after his side was sunk by a couple of goals from veteran Steve Maxwell.

* Parramatta did its best to fight back against a losing cause, but clearly Eagles' fans didn't show much faith as they stayed away in droves.
A withering first half capped by a Gabriel Mendez goal gave the Eagles hope, but Matt Horsley's equaliser sealed it.
Marshall Soper's late goal for Parramatta was his seventh in CCSL finals games, an all-time record.

WEEK TWO

Match: Minor Semi-Final

* Adelaide City's championship machine rolled ominously towards another Grand Final with a Minor Semi-Final record 4-0 victory over disappointing Wollongong City.
Hitting form similar to his 1991/92 finals heroics, Adelaide City striker Carl Veart struck twice - his first coming less than two minutes into the game - to set the Zebras rolling towards Melbourne and a third Preliminary Final in as many seasons.

* In what the South Melbourne faithful have claimed was the blackest day in club history, mighty Marconi smashed two significant records as the Fairfield machine cemented a Grand Final berth and home city advantage for the big day with a 7-0 victory in the second leg of the Major Semi-Final.
The result was a record score for any of the 107 games played in CCSL post-season history and the defeat was South Melbourne's heaviest in 507 league, cup and finals matches played by the club since the league commenced in 1977.

ADELAIDE: Zabica, Brooks, Vidmar, Ivanovic, Tobin, Talladira, Mori (Barbaro 77), Veart, Melta, Maxwell, Mullen (Csoboth 85)
* For the third successive year it was a South Melbourne - Adelaide City match-up in the penultimate game of the season, and for the second successive year Zoran Matic's side had the measure of the Blues when it counted.
Beaten, dispirited and demoralised, the Blues recalled three less than fit players and fielded a concussed Mehmet Durakovic.
Adelaide City's former South Melbourne player, Damien Mori, struck a double - the second of which was a finals classic - to sink his old club.

The Wide World of Sports are in Argentina

There's nothing we enjoy more in Argentina than tough, friendly competition from visiting international sporting teams.

But there's more to South America than just soccer, tennis, polo, rugby, horse racing, swimming, skiing, trekking, basketball, cycling, white water rafting, windsurfing, motor racing, mountain climbing, hangliding, sailing to name a few.

That's why Aerolineas Argentinas with their travel agents have planned a whole range of holiday packages to show off 'our' South America.

So win, lose or draw, celebrate with us in South America.
